WHO WE ARE

Technology and Experience HAND IN GLOVE

A young and vibrant IT and software development entity understands the trials and travails of fledgling business endeavors well. With a first hand experience to boot, Tvisha cut through obstacles to carve out a niche place for itself. We lend the kind of support to startups - what we craved for in our initial stages. And what more, it comes with a touch of professionalism and pragmatism!

WHAT WE OFFER

- As a Start up company, you are faced with a plethora of opportunities and are hard pressed for apt decisions. A falter can lead to a big tumble. The line differentiating between a winner and an "also-ran" is thin but the difference is telling! Sail with people in the know and emerge the winner.

We contribute and complement your technology initiatives. Make the right move and benefit from having a round peg in a round slot.
